Alloy is the brainchild of Perth's Jonathon Warner, who did more than kick around the family metal business. Sleek, solid and simple, products include canisters inspired by the form of a farm water tank, candleholders and shot glasses. The sexy stainless-steel mosaic tiles caught the eye of the Ian Schrager hotel group and featured in display bathrooms for The Empire Hotel, currently under construction in New York. Stockists: (08) 9279 8855.
