"As time is always of the essence in my day, the idea of coming home and enjoying a decadent bathing ritual is key to creating a bathroom sanctuary, while still maintaining a pared-down simplicity in the design." 1 Mirror "I adore Paris and all things French, and this mirror creates drama while exuding essential Parisian style." Custom-made, black-lacquered, hand-cut French mirror on legs, POA, from In Ex Living. 2 Chandelier "This Swarovski crystal chandelier is so intricate, its delicacy provides a balance against some of the bolder, simpler items." Science & Fiction chandelier, POA, from De De Ce. 3 Lamp "Cute and simple, this will work with the dark tones of this scheme while emulating the ornate lines of the chandelier." Kartell 'Bourgie' lamp, $430, from Space. 4 Accessories "Scented candles add to the sensory experience of a space; grapefruit is energising and uplifting." Grapefruit Luxury Candle, $495, from Jo Malone. 5 & 7 Tiles "The rounded edges of these black mosaic tiles catch the light, creating a soft inky texture on a wall." 14mm x 14mm ceramic tiles in black, POA, from Skheme. "The brushed finish on these brass mosaic tiles reflects light and adds depth to a very visually opulent material." 20mm x 20mm brass mosaic tiles, POA, from Alloy. 6 Bath "I love a freestanding bath; there's something incredibly luxurious about it." Kaldewei 'Centro Duo Oval' bath, $5750, from Bathe. 8 Spout "This spout fits well with the simple freestanding bath." Vola floor-mounted swivel spout in stainless steel, $1403, from De De Ce. 9 Vanity "It's so quirky yet opulent; it fits perfectly into the scheme." AQ Hayon 'Grand Suite', $18,395, from Rogerseller. www.cyd.com.au
